

BACKGROUND

This campaign was organized by residents in Ely, Minnesota. This dedicated group is spreading awareness and preventing a copper-sulfide ore mine from being proposed alongside the Wilderness Area boundaries. The organization has since spread nationwide, gaining followership in an effort to save America's most visited Wilderness area from the nation's most toxic industry.

RAISING AWARENESS

Recently, we have introduced House Bill 5598; The Boundary Waters Wilderness Protection and Pollution Protection Act. Introduced by Betty McCollum back in January of 2020, this bill would establish roughly 234,328 acres as federally protected land. This would prohibit any mining operation from damaging the wilderness area.
